PLAN TEST RUN TO ORPHANAGE BY 4 COMPANIES

Plans for a test run to Hoffman Orphanage and a simulated disaster air raid drill were outlined Thursday evening at a meeting of the Adams County Fire Chiefs' Association at Bonneauville.

Gettysburg, Bonneauville, Barlow and Littlestown firemen will participate in the test at the orphanage Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The air raid drill, similar to the test held at Shippensburg, June 14, under Civil Defense arrangements, will be conducted in the fall.

County Fire Marshal John Murren announced arrangements for both tests. Officials at the Hoffman Orphanage have asked the test there to check use of a new farm pond constructed about 1,500 feet from the principal buildings at the home.

Set Speed Limit
Murren arranged that the four fire companies which normally would be called in case of fire at the orphanage take part in the test.

Fire Chiefs Donald Jacobs and Donald McSherry, Gettysburg; Bernard W. Miller, Barlow; Glenn Ohler, Littlestown, and James Orndorff of Bonneauville met with Murren following the regular meeting to complete plans for the test. All of the companies will have their engines ready to operate at 6:30 p.m. at their respective fire houses, it was decided. At a signal over the main

New Air Test

The following is a news release from the headquarters of the 26th Air Division, Roslyn, N. Y.:

"Some time this month aircraft of the strategic Air Command will appear over observation posts, on radar scopes, and high in the skies over our cities; testing the effectiveness of the Air Defense Command and its defense network on this continent. It is just a test, but the idea is a tighter defense, greater effectiveness, and smoother teamwork between Ground Observer Corps, Filter Centers, Radar Stations, and Fighter Interceptor Bases.

"The exercise, 'Operation Checkpoint,' is one of a series of 'Controlled Training Exercises,' and is part of the normal training routine. It is designed to test the effectiveness of all Air Defense Command Units, down to the smallest operational element."

TROOP CAMP FOR GIRL SCOUTS SET FOR AUGUST

Plans for a Troop Camp to be held by the Adams County Girl Scout Council August 16 to 20 at Camp Conewago, the Conewago District Boy Scout camp near Dick's Dam, were outlined today.

The camp is open to Senior Scouts, Intermediates and "Flyups" of the county. Each scout must furnish her own transportation to and from the camp.

Opening of the camp is scheduled for 10 a.m. on August 16 and the closing will be at 2 p.m. on August 20. Each camper will bring a nose-bag lunch for the noon meal on the opening day.

A feature of those plans is a breakfast hike. One morning during the camp the scouts will leave on a hike during which they will prepare their own breakfasts over "Buddy-burners" which they will construct during the encampment.

The "Buddy-burners" are made from two tin cans, with the smaller filled with paraffin and corrugated paper and placed under the larger container. The materials in the smaller can are ignited and the scouts will cook their breakfasts on the top of the larger can.

During the encampment the scouts will have an opportunity to earn their preference among the following badges: camper, pioneering, adventuring, wild plants, and outdoor safety. The badges will be awarded at the close of camp August 20.

Tank Corps Will Plant Tree Here In Soil From 48 States

A pound of soil from each of the 48 states will be placed around the roots of a pine tree to be planted on the Gettysburg Battlefield site of the former Camp Colt where the Tank Corps of World War I received its training. This will be one of the highlights of the 1954 reunion of the Tank Corps here August 27 and 28.

The reunion is expected to attract 500 or more Tankers, their wives and families.

Glen Hutton, national commander of the World Wars Tank Corps Association, said "this reunion will be the largest and finest we have ever held. There is more enthusiasm and interest in this year's gathering than in any previous session."

In a recent edition of the Indianapolis (Indiana) News there appeared a three column photograph of Governor George N. Craig's aide presenting a pound of Hoosier soil to Tom White, national adjutant general of the Tank Corps Association, Adjutant General Harold A. Doherty and Robert Midkiff who will deliver the Indiana soil to Gettysburg. A news article accompanied the photograph.

In an editorial the News said: "It is fitting and symbolic that the soil of all the states of the Union nourish the roots of the pine tree to be planted on the field of Gettysburg by the World Wars Tank Corps Association."

"At Gettysburg the American Fighting Tanker Corps was born in the days of World War I, and there is its headquarters. There its veteran members of three wars will assemble August 27-28 for their first reunion."

"The pound of Indiana soil that was spaded by Governor George N. Craig from out Statehouse lawn will mingle with that of all the other states under the tanker memorial pine at Gettysburg."

"Hoosiers will never forget the hard-given contribution to the nation's freedom that has been made by the men who manned the iron cavalry."

Faith And Prayer Saved The Constitution

By Leighton C. Taylor

Doctor Norman Vincent Peale, in a recent article, entitled, "How Prayer Can Help," cited a number of substantiating instances. One had to do with the boyhood of President Eisenhower. A victim of blood poisoning, the young man, a future President in the making, was told that his leg would have to be amputated. He refused to permit it. His family supported his refusal and began to pray continuously. Each member of the family was assigned a prayer period, forming a so-called "chain of prayer." After several days both the swelling and fever subsided and the leg was saved.

Upon reading Doctor Peale's article the thought occurred that this government of ours, of by, and for the people, might never have materialized but for faith in God and the power of prayer.

In the Book of Psalms, chapter 127, verse 1, we read: "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it."

Thanks to God

Along the Virginia Capes, not far from Fortress Monroe, stands a simple stone cross. This cross was erected by Captain Newport and his band of immigrants in 1607, and their first act in the New World was to kneel and give thanks to Almighty God for a safe voyage.

Proceeding up what is now known as the James River they founded Jamestown, the first permanent English settlement in America. That simple stone cross is a symbol of America's faith in God and the power of prayer—a living faith that has meant so much in the formation and preservation of our nation—a nation where the principles, if not always the practices, have been Christian.

Other colonists followed in increasing numbers, and one by one new colonies were formed until Georgia in 1733 became the thirteenth. Thus it can be said that our formal colonial history had its beginning on the Virginia Capes

MRS. M'ILVANE LEAVES ESTATE OF $292,913.97

Mrs. Julia Lemoyne McIlvane, who died August 6, 1953, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Orem, New Oxford R. 2, left an estate appraised at $292,913.97, according to papers filed with the Adams County register of wills.

The papers, filed preliminary to payment of Pennsylvania inheritance tax, indicates that the estate will be some time in settlement, consisting mostly of trusts set up prior to the death of Mrs. McIlvane's husband, William B. McIlvane Sr., in 1943.

A son, William B. McIlvane Jr., a Chicago attorney, is executor of the widely-scattered estate.

State Tax May Exceed $4,000

According to the papers filed here by the executor, $252,687.18 of the estate consists of a trust with the U. S. Trust Company of New York. Another trust fund with the Safe Deposit and Trust Co., of Baltimore. There appear also to be trust funds in Ohio and Illinois. Approximately $40,000 of the estate was in personal property including cash and U. S. Government bonds.

Pennsylvania should gain somewhere between $4,000 and $6,000 in inheritance tax from the estate, on the face of the appraisement. Court officials here said however that no computation could be made prior to the filing locally of a statement of such exemptions as may be allowed for funeral expenses, debts, etc.

Listed as heirs in a copy of Mrs. McIlvane's will are five persons identified as "friends" and believed to have been servants of Mrs. McIlvane, all of whom receive small sums. The principal amount of the estate is divided in the will among the children, Attorney McIlvane, Mrs. David McDougal, Chicago; Mrs. Benjamin Brewster and Mrs. Blanchard Randall, all of Baltimore.

Will Not Probated Here

Approval was given by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Thursday for the Adams County register and recorder to collect the tax due on the estate. No will has been entered for probate here. It is believed that the will was filed in Cook County, Ill., where the ashes of Mrs. McIlvane are believed to have been placed.

Following her death near New Oxford, the body was removed to a Baltimore Funeral Home for services and cremation.

Laws governing trust departments would indicate that the dissolution of the various trusts to permit distribution of the estate will require court approval in the counties where the trusts are located.

SIX SPOTTERS OF 98 SERVED

Only six out of 98 aircraft observers reported to the Gettysburg Ground Observer Corps station during the week of June 29 to July 5, Harold Brown, newly-appointed post supervisor, reported this morning.

Brown, commenting on the lackadaisical attendance figures, urged "a realization by Gettysburg citizens of the importance of low-level aircraft warning." He again issued a plea that all GOC personnel who have signed, observe the hours and dates of their assignment.

Aircraft observer "wings" will be given to volunteers who have attended the required 24 hours at a presentation meeting next Wednesday evening at the Court House. The program will begin at 8 o'clock. All GOC members are asked to be present and to bring a friend with them.

Air force officials will present the awards and provide a speaker and movie on the operation of observer posts and the air defense of the nation.

Those who staffed the Bonneauville Hill station last week were: Janet Wickerham, Mrs. G. W. Weaver, Patty Weaver, George Larkin, Edward Buleit, and P. C. Ahrens. John J. Slentz is the local chief observer and Mrs. Kenneth Hull, assistant chief observer.

He said that a joint district social "get-together" has been tentatively set for August 10 at Playland Park in East York, and that the Jaycee may sponsor a U. S. Marine Band concert.

HOME LEVELLED BY FLAMES; TWO WHEAT FIELDS BURN; 4 ALARMS

A family was made homeless and two wheat fields and a mattress were burned in four fires fought by Adams County firemen in the last 24 hours.

The home of Lewis Metz and family, on the Cold Springs Rd., near Strausbaugh's fruit farm, about five miles from Fairfield, was destroyed by fire about 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The family was given temporary shelter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Bigham, nearby. Damage was estimated at $3,000.

Cashtown and New Oxford firemen were called Thursday afternoon to fight fires in wheat fields of Harvey Walter, Gettysburg R. 2, and John Dubbs, along the New Oxford-Bonneauville Rd.

Early Call Here Today

Gettysburg firemen were called at 5:50 o'clock this morning to extinguish a blazing mattress at the home of Kermit O. Deardorff, Steinwehr Ave.

Fairfield firemen said the blaze at the Metz home started from a wood burning kitchen stove which had been fired to cook the evening meal for the family. In the house at the time of the blaze were Metz's mother, Mrs. Katie Metz, an octogenarian and practically blind; Pauline McDannell, his housekeeper, a 12-year-old boy and a two-year-old child.

All escaped from the house when the upper section of the story and a half frame structure burst into flames apparently from the overheated stove.

Use Sprayer to Fight Fire

Much of the furniture was removed from the lower story before the flames reached that section.

A sprayer from the Dwight L. Strausbaugh orchard was taken to the scene immediately after the

HOSPITAL STAFF GETS SUPPORT IN HALUSKA FIGHT

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (U-P)—The Pennsylvania Medical Assn. and the Cambria County Medical Society are supporting the 16 members of the medical staff of Spangler Miners' Hospital who face a court fight over their threat to resign.

The doctors' mass exodus was threatened a short time ago in their controversy over retention of State Sen. John Haluska as administrator of the 165-bed institution.

Dr. Willis D. Hall, chief of the medical staff, said the physicians would quit unless Haluska resigned or was fired. He is still on the job. The board of trustees took no action regarding him at a regular meeting last night.

Turn To Court
The regular meeting came in the wake of a hurriedly called special session 24 hours previously at which the board ordered its attorney to take some legal action in the case. The attorney, along with counsel for Haluska, promptly petitioned the Cambria County Common Pleas Court for an injunction against the doctors to keep them from quitting.

The court action climaxes a controversy which began several weeks ago after it was reported the nurses home at the hospital would be turned over to Harry Hoxsey of Dallas, Tex., for a cancer clinic. The American Medical Assn. disputes Hoxsey's claim that a medicine he has compounded is effective in treatment of cancer. Counsel for the medical staff has until 1 p.m. next Monday to answer the request for the injunction.

VAT EXPLODES; MAN IS KILLED

GARY, Ind. (U-P)—One workman was killed and 21 others were hurt in an explosion of a 90,000-gallon vat of caustic soda at a detinning plant here yesterday.

Monderville H. Woodworth, 40, Hammond, died in St. Catherine's Hospital in East Chicago last night, a few hours after the thundering blast.

Charles G. Obertini, 34, also of Hammond, the only other critically injured worker, was reported in fair condition today.

The explosion shattered the 12-ton cover of the detinning vat, 12 feet in diameter and 30 feet high. It virtually wrecked the new plant building, 200 by 500 feet and as much as 150 feet tall. The building was made of a metal alloy, tantite.

$100,000 Damage
Morgan A. Powell, plant manager, said the damage may be over $100,000.

He said the cause of the explosion had not been determined. But Fire Battalion Chief Joseph Zale said a safety valve on the pressure vat probably failed.

The plant, which reclaims scrap metals, had gone into production June 1.

The explosion blew a five-cubic-foot metal casting through the roof. The plant, owned by the Vulcan Detinning Co., is near busy Cline Ave.

Tin cans being reclaimed in the vat were blown against the plant office building 75 feet away and windows in the office were broken.

Surveyors Seek New Site For Sinking City

OTTAWA (U-P)—A 10-man survey party is seeking a new site for the remote arctic community of Akavik on the MacKenzie River delta 70 miles south of the Arctic Ocean.

The 42-year-old settlement, largest in the Canadian arctic, is in danger of sinking through melting permafrost. Summer heat, ground warmth created by buildings and excavations and roads turn the present permafrost terrain into a quagmire.

Lack of an adequate year-round water supply and sewage disposal system has created a serious health problem for the 400 whites, 250 Eskimos and 125 Indians who live in the community.

MAKE PROGRESS IN EFFORTS TO SETTLE STRIKE OF A-WORKERS

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (U-P)—Considerable progress was reported today in secret efforts to settle a three-day strike of atomic workers without resorting to a Taft-Hartley court injunction to end the walkout.

The strike has idled 4,500 workers at key uranium production facilities.

Secretary of Labor Mitchell, handling the labor dispute for President Eisenhower met until early this morning at his office with CIO President Walter Reuther.

The meeting was reportedly arranged at Reuther's request and attended also by Elwood Swisher, president of the striking CIO Gas, Coke and Chemical Workers, and Joseph R. Joy, a top union official from Oak Ridge, Tenn.

Repairing Report

A source close to the situation said "considerable progress was made."

A presidential inquiry board, meanwhile, went ahead with closed door hearings for a report on the situation to President Eisenhower. Once he has the report, the President may under the T-H law direct the Justice Department to apply for a back-to-work court order.

It was expected that unless a settlement is reached quickly—and that was considered possible—the government would act fast in court to get the men back to their jobs.

Mitchell earlier had tried for a settlement but apparently gave up after the inquiry board was named. On Wednesday he reportedly asked the union to call off the strike, in return for which he as secretary of labor would help sponsor negotiations. The union turned this idea down. Apparently Reuther's move for a meeting last night revived Mitchell's interest in seeking a settlement.

COLONEL ARMAS AT TOP OF HEAP IN GUATEMALA

By CARLOS ESCUDERO

GUATEMALA (U-P)—Col. Carlos Castillo Armas finally stood at the top of the political heap in Guatemala today. The government announced the rebel chief was elected president of a new three-man junta, the fifth government turnover in less than two weeks.

Col. Eliege Monzon, temporary chief of the five-man junta in charge since last Friday, remained on the new pared-down ruling body.

But the reins were clearly in Castillo's hands. The third member of the top group, Maj. Enrique Oliva, was defense minister in the provisional government which the rebel leader set up at Chiquimula after his army of Guatemalan exiles invaded their homeland from neighboring Honduras June 18.

Clear-Cut Victory

A government decree last night said Castillo's election was effective immediately. The announcement said the five members of the previous junta voted unanimously to make him head man at a meeting Wednesday night.

The other two members of the previous group—Lt. Col. Mauricio Dubois and Lt. Col. Jose Luis Cruz—resigned. In a formal statement they said a smaller group would make governing easier. It was speculated the two would draw diplomatic assignments, one likely in Washington.

Castillo's emergence as chief of Guatemala's newest anti-Red regime had been expected for several days. The move finally gave the colonel's liberation army a clear-cut victory.

Most of his followers were openly dissatisfied with the compromise arrangement he reached with Monzon at a peace conference last week in El Salvador. The conference set up the five-man junta which Monzon headed as temporary chief. It was agreed that a permanent president would be picked by July 17.

Red China Causes Confusion In Or Out Of United Nations

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Red Chinese will cause confusion when they try to get into the United Nations. They'll cause more if they get in. And the very thought they might get in has caused confusion here already.

It was this thought which for a while had Sen. Knowland of California, Republican Senate leader, acting like the junior, or senior, secretary of state. He appears to have calmed down now.

He was so incensed July 1 over the idea Red China might get a U. N. seat he served notice, if it happened, he would resign his Senate leadership and head a move to take the United States out of the world organization.

Seems To Be Unanimity

There seems to be unanimity the United States should fight against seating Red China in the U. N. but not pulling this country out if the Communists get in.

But there could be no doubt the consequences might be profound if Knowland carried through, once Red China got into the U. N. and succeeded in leading the United States out the other door.

American withdrawal might wreck the U. N., which this country laboriously had helped create as a place where hostile nations could debate their difficulties instead of fighting over them.

Cost Of Withdrawal

Withdrawal could result in surrendering America's world leadership, alienating its friends, destroying its alliances, driving it into isolation and, if the U. N. survived, leaving the Communists free to use it against the United States.

As an alternative to that, the United States, once out of the U. N., might set up a bloc of non-Communist states that would work together tighter and better than they have in the past.

At the least, the consequences of a walkout would be so far-reaching as to require a major change in American foreign policy. Knowland said he was considering whether the Senate should go on record as saying Congress would cut out all American financial support of the U. N. if it seated Red China.

Dulles Optimistic

U. N.—President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles wouldn't have any choice, Congress would be making the foreign policy.

By these tactics Knowland put himself squarely in front of Dulles as the shaper of American foreign policy, telling him not only what should be done but must be done.

May Have Succeeded

This week Eisenhower and Dulles both pledged an unending fight to keep Red China out of the U. N. Eisenhower wouldn't go along with Knowland in threatening U. S. withdrawal if Red China got in. He'd decide on that when the time came, he said, and according to what seemed best for the country.

Dulles was more optimistic than either of them. He said he was confident Red China wouldn't get in and that he wouldn't operate on the assumption it would. This cooled off Knowland.

Instead of urging the Senate to say it would cut off American funds if the U. N. admitted China, late yesterday he said he'd settle for the Senate's saying Congress didn't want Red China in.

If Dulles can be so calmly sure Red China doesn't have a chance, and if this can chill Knowland so fast, what bit the Californian in the first place? He said he had been trying to strengthen Dulles' hand.

That may have been part of it. He may have wanted to be sure the U. N. kept Red China out by giving it a warning. He also may have been impatient with Eisenhower and Dulles, wanting to force them into a more public and positive stand on Red China. If that was his purpose, he succeeded.

Faith And Prayer Saved The Constitution

the people looked upon the word of God as a transforming power; a time when it was preached not as a tradition, but as the very power and wisdom of their Creator. When the forefathers of these delegates were feeling from old world tyranny the Bible came with them; it was their book of faith and morals, and from the free and faithful reading of it these men recognized their sacred duty and individual responsibility. Historians have long agreed that the membership of this assembly stood second to none in character, intellectual attainment, and far-sighted statesmanship. They were men whose forebears had been inspired to sail away from all domination other than that of their God and the Bible.

Faced Difficult Problems

It was a convention, born not of controversy but of consecration, a convention composed of men of ripe scholarship and devoted piety, who were able to transcend their times and make their work an inspiration for all succeeding generations. Even the opponents of the Constitution paid tribute to the character of its framers.

But notwithstanding the high calibre of the delegates, the problems before the Assembly, after deliberation and discussion lasting five months, seemed impossible of solution, and the framing of a Constitution doomed to failure.

For example, how would it be possible to combine people so distant from one another as New England and Georgia, or Connecticut and Virginia?

(a) If we were to have one nation, upon what basis was the representation in Congress to be set up?

(b) Should there be more than one House of Congress, and if so, on what basis were its members to be selected?

(c) Should Congress regulate commerce, and, if so, to what extent?

(d) Should there be on Chief Executive, or more, and how should he or they serve, and what should we call him or them?

(e) What about a Supreme Court, and how was it to be established?

(f) The question of slavery arose to plague the Convention. Were the slaves to be counted as population, and, if so, on what basis?

Franklin Speaks

At this juncture, with the Convention on the point of adjourning and abandoning the purpose for which it had been called, the venerable Benjamin Franklin, mature in years, ripe in wisdom, and consummate in tact, arose and addressing General Washington the Chairman, said:

"Mr. Chairman, The small progress we have made after four or five months' close attendance and continual reasoning with each other, our different sentiments on almost every question, several of the last producing as many noises as eyes, is, methinks, a melancholy proof of the imperfection of the human understanding. We indeed seem to feel our own want of political wisdom, since we have gone back to ancient history for models of government and examined the different forms of those republics which, having been originally formed with the seeds of their own dissolution, now no longer exist; and we have viewed modern states all around Europe, but find none of their constitutions suitable to our circumstances."

"In this situation of this assembly, groping, as it were, in the dark to find political truth, and scarce able to distinguish it when presented to us, how has it happened, sir, that we have not hitherto once thought of humbly applying to the Father of Light to illuminate our understanding?" In the beginning of the contest with

Britain, when we were sensible of danger, we had daily prayers in this room for the Divine protection. Our prayers, sir, were heard, and they were graciously answered. All of us who were engaged in the struggle must have observed frequent instances of a superintending Providence in our favor.

"God Governs"

"To that kind Providence we owe this happy opportunity of consulting in peace on the means of establishing our future national felicity. And have we now forgotten that powerful Friend, or do we imagine we no longer need His assistance? I have lived, sir, a long time; and the longer I live the more convincing proofs I see of this truth that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without His aid?"

"We have been assured, sir, in the sacred writings, that 'Except the Lord build the house, it labor in vain that buildeth it.' I firmly believe this; and I also believe, that without His concurring aid, we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel. We shall be divided by our little partial, local interests; our projects will be confounded; and we ourselves shall become a reproach and a by-word down to future ages. And what is worse, mankind may hereafter, from this unfortunate instance, despair of establishing government by human wisdom, and leave it to chance, war, and conquest. I, therefore, beg leave to move, that henceforth prayers, imploring the assistance of Heaven and its blessings on our deliberations, be held in this assembly every morning before we proceed to business; and that one or more of the clergy of this city be requested to officiate in that service."

Progress is Started

From that moment the Assembly began to make progress. One after another, the perplexing questions were settled and the purpose of the Convention — the framing of a Constitution — was achieved.

The Constitution of the United States is by far the most important production of its kind in human history. It created, without historic precedent, a federal-national government. It combined national strength with individual liberty in a degree so remarkable as to attract the world's admiration. Never before in the history of man had a government struck so fine a balance between liberty and union, between state rights and national sovereignty.

The world had labored for ages to solve this greatest of all governmental problems, but it had labored in vain. Greece in her mad clamor for liberty had forgotten the need of the strength that union brings, and she perished. Rome made the opposite mistake. Rome fostered union — nationality — for its strength until it became a tyrant, and strangled the child Liberty. It was left for our own revolutionary fathers to strike the balance between these opposing hand. That may have been part of it. He may have wanted to be sure the U. N. kept Red China out by giving it a warning. He also may have been impatient with Eisenhower and Dulles, wanting to force them into a more public and positive stand on Red China. If that was his purpose, he succeeded.

PERFUMED THOROUGHFARE—Workmen finish floral tribute to Saint Maria Goretti in main street of Genzano, near Rome, Italy, during 200th annual flower festival.

Britain, when we were sensible of danger, we had daily prayers in this room for the Divine protection. Our prayers, sir, were heard, and they were graciously answered. All of us who were engaged in the struggle must have observed frequent instances of a superintending Providence in our favor.

"God Governs"

"To that kind Providence we owe this happy opportunity of consulting in peace on the means of establishing our future national felicity. And have we now forgotten that powerful Friend, or do we imagine we no longer need His assistance? I have lived, sir, a long time; and the longer I live the more convincing proofs I see of this truth that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without His aid?"

"We have been assured, sir, in the sacred writings, that 'Except the Lord build the house, it labor in vain that buildeth it.' I firmly believe this; and I also believe, that without His concurring aid, we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel. We shall be divided by our little partial, local interests; our projects will be confounded; and we ourselves shall become a reproach and a by-word down to future ages. And what is worse, mankind may hereafter, from this unfortunate instance, despair of establishing government by human wisdom, and leave it to chance, war, and conquest. I, therefore, beg leave to move, that henceforth prayers, imploring the assistance of Heaven and its blessings on our deliberations, be held in this assembly every morning before we proceed to business; and that one or more of the clergy of this city be requested to officiate in that service."

Progress is Started

From that moment the Assembly began to make progress. One after another, the perplexing questions were settled and the purpose of the Convention — the framing of a Constitution — was achieved.

The Constitution of the United States is by far the most important production of its kind in human history. It created, without historic precedent, a federal-national government. It combined national strength with individual liberty in a degree so remarkable as to attract the world's admiration. Never before in the history of man had a government struck so fine a balance between liberty and union, between state rights and national sovereignty.

The world had labored for ages to solve this greatest of all governmental problems, but it had labored in vain. Greece in her mad clamor for liberty had forgotten the need of the strength that union brings, and she perished. Rome made the opposite mistake. Rome fostered union — nationality — for its strength until it became a tyrant, and strangled the child Liberty. It was left for our own revolutionary fathers to strike the balance between these opposing raido station all will start for Hoffman's at a speed not exceeding 45 miles per hour. In that way the firemen hope to determine which of the companies can reach the orphanage the quickest.

At the scene Barlow and Bonneauville will use booster tanks in simulating fighting a fire to determine how effective it would be in event of fire. Gettysburg and Littlestown will set up a relay from the pond to throw water in the quadrangle at the home. Through the test firemen hope to learn how best to arrange hose and engines if there is ever need to fight a fire there.

County Units Lauded

Fire Marshal Murren said the Adams County units which participated in the Civil Defense drill at Shippenburg June 14 had received high praise from state CD officials. At Shippenburg firemen and other CD units from six counties took part in a simulated disaster calling for half of the community to have been destroyed by bombing. In the midst of the "rescue" and fire work an air alert was sounded. Murren said streets filled with people watching the firemen cleared within "a minute."

Adams County's radio network, which tied together the county units at Shippenburg, the central radio station at Gettysburg, and through state police facilities, Gettysburg, Chambersburg and Carlisle, received highest commendation from state CD officials.

More Drills Ahead

The Adams County firemen will participate in a similar drill at Mt. Holly Springs in August or September and then will stage their own drill in Adams County in October or November. Emmitsburg, Taneytown, Hanover and Pennville fire companies, which are also members of the Adams County Fire Chiefs Association will participate with the Adams County group for the test.

President Eugene Murren presided at Thursday's meeting with 15 companies represented. The group voted to meet again in September.

Mrs. Ira Henderson, Fairfield, activities chairman, announced that the Gettysburg WCTU held their annual strawberry and cake festival and that the birthday party of the month was given by the Women's Bible Class of Christ Lutheran Church, June 17.

The August birthday party will be given by the Mt. Olivet Women's Guild of the Bernadine Reformed Church.

The meeting closed with a moment of silent prayer calling attention to the "faithful service" of Mrs. Marie Zeigler, recently deceased.

SENATOR ASKS U.S. TO RETURN N.Y. FUGITIVE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate housing probes have asked State Department aid in bringing back a New York City man who, Sen. Capehart (R-Ind.) says, "flew to France a few days ago . . . under circumstances which make it appear he was trying to avoid being questioned."

Capehart said last night he was asking the State Department, which had no comment on possible action, to lift the passport of Norman K. Winston, described by the senator as a "New York City operator engaged in large construction projects in Texas and Ohio."

Capehart is chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, which has been investigating reports of multi-million-dollar irregularities in the federal housing program. He called Winston a "key witness" and said he had once promised to testify.

Wants Larger Staff

He said he had written to Secretary of State Dulles asking him to "rescind Mr. Winston's passport and send him back to the United States for questioning by the committee."

The senator said also he will ask for an expanded staff of investigators to help with the housing probe because the "magnitude of the apparent irregularities . . . appears almost incomprehensible."

The committee is probing "wind-fall" profits made by some builders of apartments who financed their operations with government-insured loans. Such excess profits resulted when a project cost less than the government-insured loan, and promoters pocketed the difference.

The committee's inquiry has centered on possible collusion between builders, project sponsors and housing officials under an apartment project program which expired in 1950.

1,000 To Begin Harvest On Monday Of County's 2nd Largest Cherry Crop: Harvest of the second largest crop of sour cherries Adams county ever produced, already under way in the smaller orchards, will swing into full stride Monday morning when a small army of pickers, estimated at more than 1,000, will begin picking the choice fruit while several hundred other persons will be employed in handling and canning the cherries.

Cherry growers say that this year's sour cherry crop is five or six times the size of that gathered last year when severe damage was caused by freezing. The 1937 bumper crop alone tops estimates of the 1939 yield.

He engaged in butchering about 18 years. Later he was employed as a taxi driver.

Mr. Pitzer's wife, Ruth (Spangler) Pitzer, died in 1933.

Today's Talk

UNHOUSED AND UNTRAPPED
Some time ago I had a talk about being trapped by our yesterdays, in which something occurred that caged us for the new day. What a glorious feeling to have upon awakening each morning, realizing that you are free—untrapped by any previous event or experience, and housed only by the limitless out-of-doors!

No worries, no regrets, no apologies to anyone—unhoused and untrapped. There are those who keep carrying the anxieties of yesterday into each new day, and every day they grow in weight and put new lines of worry in the face. It merely takes the will to do away with all this and start each day as though it had never even known the memory of a yesterday.

It is possible for any of us to make each new day a notable one. Start it off with new resolves and new purposes. Never look upon it as "just another day," but as a new world, budded with new experiences and new discoveries, and we to reap the harvest. Many a single day has proved historic. Without fanfare each one of our days may take upon them snatches of events that may prove memorable.

It was meant for us to carry our happy memories along with us. They often comprise a sustaining power over us, giving cheer and hope to us, and often covering up our loneliness and disappointments. Let us pray for a clean mind and heart as one of the first essentials for a happy and successful day. And may there be no bitterness carried over from yesterday. Let us also pray for peace and good will throughout the world.

These are simple things to do, but they have their significance. They comprise a plan and a program. Isn't it wonderful to walk in the street with the crowd and know that you live in a free land and that you can aspire to what you will, and not be shot for so doing!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Fire of Enthusiasm!"

Just Folks

THE ULTIMATE REWARD
If you can stay at home and be content

And give your best to those who love you most;
If you'll enjoy an evening calmly spent;

To friendly callers be a gracious host;
If peace is yours when you have closed the door,

You will have earned what all are working for.

Men face their tasks for profit or for hire.

Yet, gain and wage translated have to be
In all their loved ones need or may desire;

In gracious living from all bickering free.
No life by dollars can be fully scored.

The home remains its ultimate reward.

All fathers work for play suits or for frocks.

Birthday and Christmas gifts and sweets;
For garden roses and the flowering phlox,

For bread and cake and all the various meats,
If you have these and love, you need no more.

You have at home what all are working for.

WAIT - AND - SEE ATTITUDE SET BY SENATORS ON RED CHINA

By RUSSELL BRINES

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee appeared set to stamp approval today on a wait-and-see plan for dealing with the prospect of Red China's seating in the United Nations.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.), author of the toned-down proposal, forecast a favorable verdict in advance of a formal vote scheduled behind closed doors. He was joined by Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.), acting committee chairman.

Knowland, the Senate GOP leader, said in an interview he expects "tremendous" support from both Republican and Democrats for his amendment, apparently revised at administration urging from a stiffer version.

Along Ike's Views

The amendment would write into the pending 3½-billion-dollar foreign aid bill:

1. Another congressional statement in opposition to admitting Communist China to the U.N.

2. A request to President Eisenhower—if Red China is seated in either the Security Council or the Assembly—for a statement to Congress on the implications to U.S. foreign policy of the action "together with any recommendations."

Feller Shines As Americans Win 'Star Game'

By Gayle Talbot-New York, July 12 (AP)—Having watched the American leaguers (mostly New York Yankees) splutter the National leaguers (principally the Cincinnati Reds) in the seventh annual all-star game at Yankee stadium by a score of 3 to 1, the following thoughts arise and stay there:

(1) That in Bobby Feller, of the Cleveland Indians, who pitched the final two and two-thirds innings for the winners, baseball is looking at one of the greatest pitchers that ever gave a batter chills with his fast ball, and

(2) That in young Joe (Flash) Gordon, the acrobatic rookie of the Yankees, there is a star performing today who can play second base as brilliantly, perhaps, as it ever has or ever will be played, and finally,

(3) That, otherwise, there still is no great difference between the two leagues, even though Tuesday's was the fifth victory scored by the American leaguers in the seven all-star games that have been played for baseball charity.

the President may have.

The amendment's actual wording is a far cry from Knowland's original demand that America promptly withdraw from the U.N. if Red China came in, with this policy to be set by Congress beforehand. It conforms more to Eisenhower's view, as he expressed it Wednesday, and endorsed by Secretary of State Dulles yesterday.

Predict China Won't Get In

The President told newsmen he is "completely and unalterably opposed" to admitting the Peiping regime, but he said the United States should go slow on deciding whether to quit the U.N. as a result. Both Eisenhower and Dulles predicted further that Communist China would not be seated.

A fresh statement of the administration's attitude was given Congress today by Asst. Secretary of State Thruston B. Morton.

Morton wrote Chairman Chipfield (R-Ill.) of the House Foreign Affairs Committee that if Red China joined the U.N. or any of its 10 specialized agencies, "it is axiomatic that we would re-examine our policy regarding the organization concerned, in the light of the circumstances then existing."

EMERGENCY FUND SET UP

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—Shipbuilder John G. Pew, who died a week ago at 84, established a trust fund providing an income against family emergencies.

This was revealed yesterday in his will, filed for probate in Delaware County Court.

In establishing the fund, Pew directed that 1,000 shares of Sun Oil Co. stock—now selling at $74 a share—be set aside for that purpose and that the "income shall be paid annually to or apply for the benefit of such one or more of my descendants as in that year are subjected to unusual expenses by reason of illness, infirmity, operations or any emergency no matter how arising."

When the last of the present descendants has died, the trust will be divided among their survivors.

Some $700,000 was willed to Pew's four sons and four daughters and the will also provided for a trust fund, described as of a "substantial amount," for Pew's wife. The balance of the estate is to be divided among the sons and daughters.

G. Harry Young, federal mediator who has been sitting in on joint meetings between the two parties, said last night the negotiations were "almost helplessly bogged down."

The strike entered its 81st day today with Young "hoping to get the union and company negotiators together in several days."

The union drivers, who earned between $1.58 and $1.70 an hour under the old contract, asked the company for a 20-cent hourly boost. The company offered eight cents an hour.

Dodger Fortunes At New Low As They Bow Again To Giants 11-2; Indians Extend Lead To 4 Games

By JOE REICHLER
Collapse or slump? Take your pick. It depends upon whether you are anti or pro Brooklyn.

Not since they "blew" the flag in the dog days of 1951 have the Dodger fortunes been at such a low ebb. Within a space of 10 days the tired and dreary Dodgers fell from the National League lead to a poor runner-up spot, 6½ lengths off the pace.

Old age, injuries, weak hitting, spotty pitching, sloppy fielding and bludgeoning Giant bats all contributed to the Dodgers' sharp decline.

Battling Among Selves

Whether the Dodgers can right themselves is anybody's guess. Only once before in the last six years have the Brooks been so badly off. That was in 1950 when they trailed the Philadelphia Phillies by eight games in September. They came on with a rush then only to lose a chance for a tie on the final day of the season.

The outlook is much gloomier now. First of all, this time they have to contend with a "hot" New York Giant team that is rushing through the league like wildfire instead of a weary Philadelphia club staggering to the finish line.

To add to their confusion, the Dodgers, meek as lambs against Giant pitching, reportedly are doing all the battling among themselves.

After Brooklyn had dropped its sixth straight to the Giants yesterday 11-2, pitchers Russ Meyer and Don Newcombe reportedly almost came to blows in the clubhouse and had to be separated by teammates. Both players denied it, however.

Newcombe admitted he questioned Meyer about a pitch Russ threw which hit Monte Irvin of the Giants in the seventh inning. Irvin, who barely had escaped being hit with the previous pitch, became angered at what he called a "deliberate" duster and called Meyer several uncomplimentary names, among them "gutless." It took some fast interference by the umpires to avoid further complications.

"What does he (Irvin) think he is?" Meyer growled. "Does he think he is a privileged character that we can't throw at him? They throw at our fellows. This is baseball, not tea and crumpets."

Indians Beat Orioles Again

Once again it was Willie Mays who led the Giant charge. The spectacular center fielder smashed his 29th and 30th homers to drive in five runs. It gave him four homers in the three-game set and nine in 12 games against Brooklyn pitching this season.

Ruben Gomez, the Puerto Rican screwball pitcher, limited the Dodgers to seven hits and fanned eight for his eighth triumph. Hours later, Gomez registered at a hospital for a tonsillectomy to be performed today.

Only four other games were played yesterday. Cleveland's American League-leading Indians boosted their margin over the idle New York Yankees to four games, defeating Baltimore 4-1 behind the seven-hit hurling of Bob Feller. Homers by Jim Hegan and Wally Westlake were all the runs Feller needed.

Ray Boone Beats Chicago

Detroit's Steve Gromek dropped Chicago seven games behind Cleveland, shutting out the White Sox 2-0 on seven hits. The Tigers' Ray Boone drove in one run with a double and scored the other. He also had two singles.

The St. Louis Cardinals bunched four singles in the second inning to defeat Cincinnati 2-1 and gain a tie with the Redlegs for fifth place. Harvey Haddix chalked up his 13th triumph.

Randy Jackson walloped his 17th home run early in the game, then singled in the 14th inning to drive in the run that gave the Chicago Cubs a 9-8 victory over Milwaukee. Rookie Bill Tremel pitched seven innings of scoreless relief for his first major league victory. Bob Buhl was the loser.

Elmira Player Is Fined, Suspended

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Clyde Parris, hard-hitting third baseman for the Elmira Pioneers of the Eastern League, today was suspended five days and fined $50 for engaging in an altercation Tuesday in a game with Albany.

Thomas H. Richardson, president of the class A, Eastern circuit, said the action was taken because Parris threw a bat at a pitcher during the game when he was hit by a pitched ball.

Parris, the league's leading hitter during most of the first half of the season, was taken from the game by Jim McGowan, umpire.

MOVE TO BUILD BACKING FOR A'S IS PROGRESSING

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A drive among Philadelphia business leaders to whip up support for the Philadelphia Athletics has already received two pledges totaling $55,000 worth of tickets.

Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr. called some 90 business and civic leaders into his City Hall office yesterday and dumped the problem of keeping the Athletics' franchise here squarely in their laps.

He said the city cannot put up any money to keep the ball club in the city where it began its once illustrious history 54 seasons ago. But he pledged the "full strength" of the city's public relations behind the movement to prevent the financially distressed team from leaving.

Need Much More

It was estimated that some 420,000 paid admissions are needed in the 32 home playing dates (39 games) remaining on the Athletics' schedule in order for the club to break even financially.

Yesterday's pledges—$50,000 of which came from the president of a drugstore chain—represent about one eighth of the total needed.

Roy Mack, executive vice president of the Athletics, said after the meeting that it would take about two weeks for the drive to show results. And he repeated previous denials that the club would be sold or transferred to another city.

VFW RALLIES TO DEFEAT LEGION IN SOFTBALL 8-6

A three-run rally in the last of the sixth inning gave the VFW an 8-6 triumph over the American Legion in a Softball League game Thursday evening and enabled the Vets to pull to within two games of the league-leading Texas Lancers.

The Legion got off to a fast start in the first inning with three runs on a walk to Ridinger, singles by Codori, Decker and McKenrick and an infield error. Another trio of tallies in the fourth were the result of a single by Graeff, fielder's choice, triple by Ridinger, double by Codori and single by Decker.

A homerun by Little with a runner aboard enabled the Vets to tie the score in the second inning. The winning runs resulted on singles by Hixon and Dorm and a pair of costly Legion miscues in the sixth.

Giants Greet Their Fantastic Home Run Hitter

Willie Mays (No. 24) gets a hero's reception at the New York Giants dugout following his first-inning home run against the Brooklyn Dodgers July 8 at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn. It was Willie's 29th of the 1954 campaign. Later in the game he hit No. 30 to move three games in front of Babe Ruth's pace of 1927, the year Ruth set the all-time record with 60 home runs. Ruth hit his 30th in the Yankees' 83rd game. Mays hit the halfway mark in game No. 80.

Scoring ten runs in the second inning and nine in the third, the Lions defeated the Moose 24-12 in a Little League tilt Thursday evening.

The Lions went down in order in the first frame while the Moose tallied one run as Stokes singled and then came home when Gary Maitland got on via an infield error.

In the second inning the Lions sent 10 men to the plate before making an out. A total of 14 men went to bat. In that frame the fans saw nine hits, no extra base blows, one walk, two miscues and a double play. Out of the ten runs, nine were earned. After the Moose went scoreless in the bottom of the second, the Lions came up with nine more runs in the top of the third. In this frame 13 more men went to bat. There were consecutive doubles in this inning by Zhea, R. Weikert and Kime. In his second time at bat, Zhea blasted out a long triple.

The Moose tallied six runs in the last of the third. Walks to Gary Maitland, Sprecher and Hartley, singles by Little and C. Fair, and a double to right field by Stokes, figured in the scoring. The Moose added one in the fourth and three in the fifth with the big blows of those innings coming on doubles by Sprankle, Stokes and Sprecher.

The Lions blasted out five more runs in the sixth frame on two singles, an error and a walk. Bob Zhea led the winners' hitting attack as he collected four hits in six trips to the plate while Ron Stokes knocked out three safeties for the losers. McCartney received the win while Sam Hartley is tagged with the loss.

The Minor League game scheduled for Thursday evening was postponed until this evening due to the length of the Little League game.

POLLUTION OF RIVERS CALLED "MOST ACUTE"

WASHINGTON (AP)—A West Virginia Congressman says pollution of streams and rivers by coal mine, industrial and municipal wastes "is one of the most acute problems facing the nation."

Rep. Bailey (R-W. Va.) made the comment while testifying before a house interior subcommittee yesterday in support of his bill to prevent stream contamination by requiring the U. S. Bureau of Mines to seal off abandoned coal mines, to require companies that abandon mines in the future to seal them off, and to require coal mine operators to prevent stream pollution arising from coal cleaning operations.

Two Other Bills

Bailey referred also to two other bills he has introduced—to combat municipal contamination by increasing the amount and extending the period of federal loans to towns and cities for installing pollution-control equipment, and to control industrial waste by allowing tax amortization for the cost of anti-pollution equipment.

This three-way approach, Bailey said, must be taken if the clean-up job is to be effective because elimination of one kind of pollution would do little good if the two others were allowed to continue.

He said he sees no chance of the House ways and means committee's looking "with favor on any more tax-amortization proposals in this session of the Congress." And he said he doubted if the House commerce committee would act on his municipal pollution bill at this time because "the Police said "Jackie" Emory, 11, of Hummel's Warf, told them he accidentally discharged a .22 caliber rifle and shot Long in the head. The boy was dead on arrival at Sunbury Community Hospital.

Dr. F. C. Wagoner, Snyder County coroner, said an inquest will be held tomorrow.

STATE LIONS PUT ON "SHOW"

NEW YORK (AP)—Last night was Pennsylvania night at the Lions convention in Madison Square Garden.

Pennsylvanians put on a gala show, featuring leading entertainers, to honor Monroe L. Nute of Kennett Square, Pa., the international's first vice president. Nute is in line for the presidency at elections Saturday.

Pennsylvania's fifth in the parade along rain-soaked Fifth Avenue, Pennsylvania came in fifth in the uniformed delegation contest. Rhode Island placed first. The Tarentum, Pa., delegation won third place in the float contest having to do with Lions activity. Tarentum's float was decorated with Lions colors, models and Lion replicas.

SUN OIL AND ATLANTIC CUT WAGON PRICES

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Sun Oil Co. and Atlantic Refining Co. have announced reductions in the tankwagon prices of gasoline in Pennsylvania to meet competition.

Atlantic cut one cent and more a gallon off its regular and premium gasolines throughout the state because of what it described as weakened price conditions in the wholesale and retail gasoline markets.

In the Philadelphia area the price of regular gas was reduced from 15.4 to 13.9 cents a gallon and the price of premium from 17.9 to 16.4 cents.

Meet Competition
In the Pittsburgh region, tankwagon prices were cut from 16.3 to 15 cents for regular and from 18.8 to 17.5 for premium.

Atlantic said that tankwagon prices will be adjusted also in areas where price wars are on.

Sun Oil cut its Blue Sunoco gas by one and one half cents a gallon to dealers in the Philadelphia area and parts of Montgomery and Bucks counties. The new tankwagon price in these areas is 15.9 cents a gallon exclusive of a seven-cent tax.

A Sun spokesman said that re-

DRAFTING NEW FARM PROGRAM

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Agriculture Committee, after voting a new rebuff for the Eisenhower administration, sought today to complete drafting its version of a general new farm program.

In advance of the closed session, Chairman Aiken (R-Vt.) said it might not be possible to take final action today, but that he hoped the section-by-section voting at least could be finished.

The committee voted 8-7 late yesterday to recommend high price supports for four important livestock feeds—oats, barley, rye and grain sorghums. Aiken said the proposal was offered by Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) and had been voted down earlier in the day 9-6.

Price supports on the four crops would be fixed by a formula which Aiken said would put them "at about 82 per cent of parity when corn was at 90 per cent." Price supports on these feed grains are now permissive.

The committee had previously voted 8-7 to recommend another year of rigid price supports at 90 per cent of parity on wheat, cotton, corn, rice and peanuts. The sixth field crop defined as "basic"—tobacco—will be supported at 90 per cent under existing laws.

BOY IS KILLED

WASHINGTONVILLE, Pa. (AP)—Paul R. Farnsworth, 2, of Danville R. D. 2, Montour County, was killed instantly yesterday when struck by a car in front of his home near here.

H. Austin Klase, acting Montour County coroner, identified the driver of the car as James J. Vasce, 36, of Cedar Grove, N. J. Klase said the child apparently crawled onto the road into the path of the Vasce car.

to France. Late last week, however, the trip was called off.

No explanation was given at that time but there was speculation it was due to the interview. Adenauer was quoted in this as saying the only choice available to France was either to ratify the EDC treaty or accept a German national army.

De Beaumont told the committee today that much of Adenauer's language in the interview was not acceptable to France. He indicated, however, the talks with the West German leader might be held later.

HOME LEVELLED TRUMAN OUT OF HOSPITAL

house burst into flames and water in the sprayer was used to combat the conflagration.

The sprayer was reported as keeping the fire in check until Fairfield firemen were summoned when the vehicle ran out of gasoline. Then the fire gained headway.

Fairfield firemen provided funds for food for the family while they remain at the Bigham's and arrangements were being made today for a more permanent home, probably an apartment in Fairfield.

Get Second Call

Metz is a brother-in-law of Frank Wilkinson, who resides about a mile and a half from the Metz home. Wilkinson's home was burned to the ground several months ago. That fire also started from an overheated stove. Neighbors of the Wilkinson's built a new home for the family.

Fairfield firemen were at the Metz house blaze at about 5:30 o'clock when they received a call to the wheat field fire at Harvey Walter farm. One engine was dispatched to that fire, but found that Cash-town had already been summoned and was engaged in fighting the blazing wheat field. The field caught while it was being combined, firemen reported. They blamed a cigarette, or a match tossed away by a smoker, for the blaze which burned several acres.

Blame Electric Fence

New Oxford firemen, called to the Dubbs farm where five acres of wheat burned at about 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon blamed the blaze on an electric fence surrounding the field. The fence was one designed to burn off wheat that might come against it, firemen said, and apparently the entire field caught, because of the long dry season, when some wheat came into contact with the electric wire.

Gettysburg firemen tossed the mattress out of a second story window at the Deardorff home this morning and completed extinguishing the blaze after the mattress and bedcovers hit the ground. There was some damage in the house. It was the 50th fire of the year for the local firemen.

SOCONY CUTS PRICE OF GAS

NEW YORK (AP)—Socony-Vacuum Oil Co. says, effective today, it is reducing the wholesale price of its regular and premium gasoline in 11 Eastern states and the District of Columbia by 1/2 a cent to one cent a gallon.

The new wholesale price in the metropolitan New York Area will be 15 cents a gallon, down 1/2 cent, on Socony's regular gasoline.

Esso Standard Oil Co. announced yesterday, and effective today, price reductions averaging 1 1/2 cents a gallon on its regular and premium gasolines in Pennsylvania.

The Socony reductions apply in the six New England states, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Washington, D. C.

Socony officials said the cuts were deemed necessary in view of "depressed price areas in Eastern markets and some weakness in the primary market" for gasoline.

But they added that no reduction will be made in sub-standard prices prevailing in retail price war areas. Such prices, they said, will be raised.

ARE WE GROWING AS CHRISTIANS?

I Corinthians 3:1-3; Ephesians 4:11-16; II Peter 1:5-8

Key Verse: Grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, (II Peter 3:18)

Growth is one of the factors in nature, both human and divine. This is clearly seen in the world of the natural. It is a persistent element. Trees in California are said to be older than Christianity are still growing and are the oldest living things. These giant sequoias still seek, so it seems, to add to their great stature and their potential usefulness. God intends man to be like that — ever growing in spiritual stature. And the Lord God has provided a measure, a measure whereby the growth of the soul may be observed. That measure is Jesus Christ. He alone furnishes the pattern and example for spiritual development and also the power to grow toward perfection which only He has attained.

The Bible records numerous incidents which show the difficulties in the way of a steady spiritual growth, and how these difficulties may be surmounted. This pertains to the growth of both the group and the individual. In his church at Corinth Paul's work was plagued by divisions among the members. There were four such groups that clashed. Paul was hampered in his work of reconciliation because the members were spiritually immature. "Men of the flesh, as babes in Christ," he called them.

He was unable to lay the foundation of the Church deep and secure because there had not been sufficient spiritual growth. "Jealousy and strife" were two of the causes which were evident on all sides. First, the spirit of Christ must purge the lives of these would-be-builders of God's kingdom on earth. There have been periods in church history in America when "jealousy and strife" caused the breaking up of congregations and the erection of new churches, all because of splits in the membership. These are merely evidences again of the lack of sufficient growth of the spirit.

In speaking to the church at Ephesus about the nurturing of faith in the congregation, Paul said, "Some should be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers." And this, Paul continues, "For building up the body of Christ." Men of various abilities and training must work together to produce a congregation that will grow in faith and grace and bring forth a fruitfulness of the spirit. It reminds us of the care of a vineyard, an orchard, or a garden and what is required if a crop is to be expected. To grow things must be cultivated; this is true of people and things.

Peter, in his second letter (1:5), lists the graces of the spirit and couples them together with their application to Christian living. He adds, "If these things are yours and abound, they keep you from being ineffective or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ." Faith and love must show themselves as bearing fruit in the personal life and among neighbors. That will lead to a fuller knowledge of Christ, and implies a growth of the spiritual life.

The earnest Christian will constantly check his own personal growth against the traits of character found in Jesus Christ. As a youth Jesus grew in stature and wisdom; He grew also in favor with God and man. What better ideal can anyone have? Paul expressed his eagerness for growth when he said, "I have not yet attained but I press forward to the goal of perfection as found in Jesus." Are we growing steadily in Christian graces? Is the Church of Christ growing? Yes, the Church is growing in membership. Impressive sums of money go into the erection of new church buildings. Many church plants are enlarged and improved. But does the Church make progress in building more perfect characters in its members? Does it grow in influencing community and national life? These are the tests of Christian citizenship. In this life the Christian and his Church will never reach perfection but progress can and should be made — "In the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

ARE THE CLOUDS BREAKING?

No one doubts that we are living in troubled times. Few generations have faced such a constant threat of war; none has known such appalling weapons of destruction. A storm of terror threatens to engulf the world.

Yet, there are some who see signs that the clouds may be breaking. They point to crowded churches . . . Sunday Schools with record enrollment . . . tremendous demand for the new translation of the Bible. They reason that such concern for the spiritual realities of life is certain to have effect on the course of our history.

Whether we share their optimism or not, there is no denying the premise on which it is based. Though we cannot read the future, we can read the past. Man's hope of peace and happiness, in national and in personal life, has always rested upon spiritual foundations.

People who want the peace of God must turn to God to find it!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

SID SCOTT HOT FAVORITE FOR BRITISH OPEN

SOUTHPORT, England (AP)—Jim Turnesa, member of one of America's famous golfing families, became the U. S. hope for the British Open Golf championship today when he shot a 71 for a 54-hole total of 215 which placed him three strokes back of a trio of leaders.

SOUTHPORT, England, July 9 (AP)—Sid Scott, a 40-year-old Englishman who has never won a major tournament, shot a 4-under-par 69 in the third round of the British Open Golf championship today and became the hot favorite to win the title.

Scott's 33-36-69, added to his record 67 of yesterday, gave him a 212 and the lead among the early finishers at the 54-hole point. The final 18 holes will be played this afternoon.

Meantime, Jimmy Demaret of Kiamasha Lake, N.Y., one of the Americans who had been considered a threat starting the final 36 holes, took a 1-over-par 74 for 218.

Disgusted With Putting
In contrast to Scott, who made six birdies with some keen putting, Demaret became ineffective on the greens after he missed a 3-foot putt on the 14th hole. He took four fives on the next five holes, finishing with three putts on the 18th.

Demaret was disgusted with himself.

"I just can't putt. That's all," he said.

Jim Turnesa, of Briarcliff, N.Y., who had been tied with Demaret at 144 starting the last two rounds, earlier had declared: "This championship can still go to Uncle Sam."

DILLSBURG FIRM NAMED IN SUIT

A complaint in mandamus was filed in common pleas court, York, Thursday against Capitol Engineering Corporation, Dillsburg, and its president, Roy W. Smith, by Robert W. Lowry, a stockholder, who charges the corporation's affairs have been "improperly managed."

Lowry, of Mechanicsburg R. 1, Cumberland County, seeks to have the court direct the defendants to give Lowry access to all records of the corporation so that plaintiff can ascertain:

The value of his 10 shares of common stock, the assets and indebtedness of the corporation, disposition of entire receipts during the period of its organization, and salaries, expenses, bonuses and any other compensation paid to officers and directors.

The corporation performs professional engineering services.

Lowry avers that he has requested that he be allowed to examine the corporation's books but received no reply to his request.

Lowry's complaint states that plaintiff believes that the "improper acts of the officers and directors have been seriously detrimental to the interests of the corporation and consequently to the direct financial interest of plaintiff."

Changes Her Mind About Ending Life

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A young mother avowedly despondent because she was divorced and penniless poised for 20 tense minutes on a seventh story ledge of City Hall while street crowds yelled "don't jump" and policemen tried to grab her.

Over and over Mrs. Adeline Dinola moaned, "I'm tired, I'm tired" and "I want Andy, I want Andy." That was her former husband.

A fire net was spread below her. A priest leaned out of the window onto the ledge, pleading with her to live. In the end, Mrs. Dinola climbed back through the window into the hands of the police.

Unhappy over the divorce, she said, she had quit her job and did not know how she could support her 11-year-old daughter, Marie. Mrs. Dinola is 30.

PARADE, DRILL, DEDICATION ON PROGRAM FOR OLD TIMERS' DAY

"Memories of 'the good old days'" will be recaptured next Friday evening in Littlestown when the Old Timers' baseball game will be staged for the benefit of the Community Ambulance Fund. The affair is being sponsored by the local Lions Club. Events will begin with a parade, followed by the dedication of the ambulance, drill exhibitions, and then the game.

"Babe" Breighner, chairman of the team committee, has announced that the following Old Timers have signified their intention of returning to participate in the contest on the Littlestown Memorial Field at 8 p.m., Friday, July 16: Harvey Tressler, Jim Bowers, George Collins, Mel Spangler, Bud Knox, Barney Wisotzkey, Lovey Breighner, Pauly Alooff, Turney Ecker and Babe Breighner. The team committee, which also includes Jim Bowers, Bud Bankert, Mel Spangler and George Collins, requests that the other players who received invitations to take part, kindly return the reply cards so that teams can be chosen and insurance coverage secured.

The big parade to precede the game will form at 6:45 p.m., on the parking lot adjacent to Memorial Field on Newark St. and will move at 7 p.m., over the main streets of town. The parade line-up will include the Hanover American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps; the Taneytown Drum and Bugle Corps; the American Legion Drill Team of Emmitsburg; the Alpha Fire Company Uniform Rank; representatives of each of the service and fraternal organizations of the community; members of the Carroll Adams Riding Club; borough officials; a number of antique cars; the local Explorer and Boy Scouts and the Girl and Brownie Scouts. The Boy Scouts will be away camping and will be unable to participate.

To Dedicate Ambulance
At the conclusion of the parade, the dedication services for the new 1954 Superior Cadillac community ambulance will be in charge of the local American Legion. The purchase of the ambulance was a Legion sponsored project. The dedicatory address will be given by a Legion department dignitary. Fifteen minutes of drill exhibitions and playing will be given by the Taneytown Drum and Bugle Corps and the Emmitsburg drill team on the field.

The Old Timers will be introduced immediately preceding the game. Prizes will be awarded the player on each team who is credited with the first hit, the first double, the first triple, the first home run, the first to reach base on balls, the pitcher credited with the first strike out; the oldest player appearing in uniform, and the player traveling the greatest distance to play in the game.

There will be no admission charge to the game. Members of the Legion and the Lions Club will be in the business section of town tonight, tomorrow night and also during the parade next Friday evening, with Booster Tags, for which a contribution will be accepted. The new ambulance will also be parked near the National Bank on S. Queen St. It is hoped to clear the $750 deficit on the ambulance with the staging of the Old Timers Game.

Bargain Basements Boring? Get 'Cream Puffs' At A Song

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
The Associated Press

I bought a cream puff with soft mileage today, and I would like to advise bargain-minded ladies to take a mechanically-minded gentleman with them if they go out looking for an automobile buy.

A cream puff is what the nice salesman assured me I got, and I understand that in used car parlance that's high praise indeed. Soft mileage, I'm told, is also desirable—and applies in this case because this 5-year-old job has only 31,000 miles on its speedometer.

I needed an automobile which was good enough to drive from my home to the railroad station and back, but old enough to cost a minimum of money and beat-up enough so it wouldn't worry me that it stood outdoors summer and winter.

TONSILS ARE DOCTOR'S JOB

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.
During childhood, tonsils are much larger than they are in adult life. Just because they are large, tonsils don't have to come out. So long as tonsils are healthy, they serve a useful purpose and should stay where they are.

If a child has had many attacks of tonsillitis his tonsils may be diseased. Simple head colds, sinus infection or hay fever do not have much effect on tonsils. But sore throats or tonsillitis do.

The first point to be considered then, if you are thinking about a tonsillectomy, is the history: Has the child had a lot of sore throats? If he hasn't, the chances are that his tonsils are all right.

If he has had many sore throats, the next question is: what do the tonsils look like? A normal healthy tonsil is smooth and glistening. It looks like a head of cabbage, except that it is pink not green. It may be large or small.

trail in the stores. Sometimes you can pick up the most amazing things—like my new used car. It's big, black, shiny, was tenderly cared for by an elderly spinster and the only reason I was able to pick it up for a song was because it was part of her estate.

Oh, yes, there are white-wall tires with 20,000 miles in them if there's a mile, and I got the whole thing for only about three times as much as I planned to pay. I really had to act fast, too, because the salesman had just about decided to buy such a bargain himself. He was really nice to let me have it, being as how he knew the elderly spinster well.

A diseased tonsil does not glisten and is not smooth; its surface is pitted. It looks like a head of cauliflower, except for its color.

Diseased tonsils usually drain into the glands at the angle of the jaw. The condition of these glands is the third point to be considered. If the glands are large and a little tender, and stay that way even when the child does not have a sore throat, the chances are his tonsils are not doing him any good and he'd better have them out.

The fourth point when you are thinking about removing tonsils is the child's hearing. Many things can affect hearing but one of the commonest is enlarged tonsils growing around the opening of the Eustachian tube—the tube that connects the middle ear with the throat. If this tube is blocked, the ear just doesn't work well and the child cannot hear as he should.

Does the child breathe with his mouth open or does he snore in his sleep? If he does, he has an obstruction to the airways in his nose. The most frequent cause of such an obstruction is enlarged adenoids.

Lastly, is the child growing and developing as he should? There are many things that can interfere with normal growth. One of these things is absorption of poisonous material from diseased tonsils.

It is the doctor who must decide whether tonsils and adenoids should come out. He will take into consideration all these points, the history of sore throats the tonsils, appearance, the condition of the glands, the child's hearing, the presence of mouth breathing, the general health of the child.

Removing diseased tonsils and adenoids will improve a child's health, but removing healthy tonsils will do the child more harm than good.

Lawyer — Writer

Any man who retires at 65 years of age or thereabouts is courting unhappiness, disillusionment — and death. To give up work, striving to accomplish things, is a great mistake: unless, of course, he goes into other work, or has some real and engrossing hobby. To merely collect stamps, butterflies, or what not, is not sufficient, because after all it does not accomplish anything for the world, or for his fellow-man.

And the representation (gotten out by some insurance companies) of a retired man lying in a hammock, and sipping some cooling drink, is too silly and utterly fantastic to deserve comment.

I have been working steadily since the age of 17, enjoy it tremendously, and intend to continue doing so (providing I do not lose my health) until I am carried out of my house in a box — feet first!

Born in Harrisburg, Pa.,

March 2, 1881, Samuel Herrick graduated from the Columbian (now George Washington) University Schools of Law and Diplomacy in 1901 and was admitted to the bar in the District of Columbia in 1902. Mr. Herrick has authored such books as The Monroe Doctrine as a Principle of International Law, Notes on Rules of Practice, and Homestead Manual. Letter to the Editor

Editor,
The Gettysburg Times,
Gettysburg, Pa.
Dear Sir:

The following is self-explanatory and I believe you will agree with me warrants a place in your "open letter column."

Realizing the importance of records of birth and the difficulty at times of securing birth certificates, and knowing that the Bureau of Vital Statistics will accept as one source of information concerning the date of birth of an individual the statement of the doctor who attended at the time, I am writing this letter.

I am the grandson of Dr. Robert B. Elderdice, who practiced medicine at McKnightstown, Adams County, from 1868 to 1926, with the exception of 1874 and 75. I have his Obstetric Record in which he recorded the age of the patient he was attending, her name, viz—Mrs. G. W. Cromwell—the date of birth, and the sex. The name of the baby is not recorded.

If I can furnish any information from Dr. Elderdice's record which may be helpful, I shall be glad to do so.

Sincerely yours,

Announcing a new BUDGET PAYMENT PLAN for gas heat users

—pay in ten equal installments . . .
no matter what the weather

Everyone knows how living costs soar in the winter . . . extra food . . . extra clothes . . . school expenses . . . Christmas bills. And that's when heating costs hit you, too. Now—if you heat with gas—you can spread your heating bill over a ten-month period.

here's how the budget plan works

We estimate your annual gas costs, then divide this total evenly over the 10 months of the entire heating season—September through June. If you have been paying about $150 a year, your budget payment during each of these 10 months would be $15. For a $100 annual bill, it would be $10.

If your actual heating costs prove to be lower than our original estimate, you would pay less than the budget payment in June. In July and August you would receive your usual low summertime bills.

If your heating costs are greater than our estimate, you would make the budget payment in June and pay the balance in July and August.

Your meter will still be read regularly. Each bill will show the quantity and cost of the gas you use. In addition, your bill will show the status of your budget account.

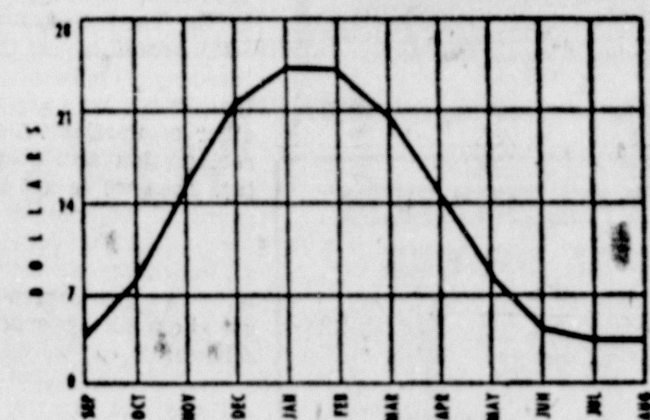

Over a year, the total you pay for gas will be the same, whether you pay your regular monthly bills or use the Budget Plan.

This Budget Plan helps you spread your heating costs over a longer time—your monthly payment stays the same even in the coldest months!

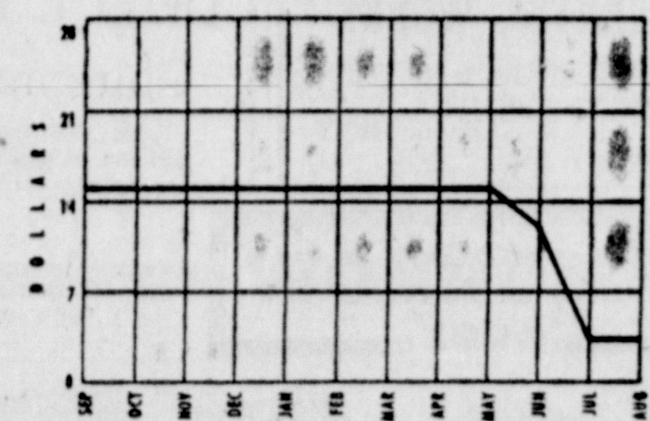

When will this plan go into effect? For those who apply, it will begin with gas bills due in September.

Send the coupon now. We will advise you what your budget payments will be.

Blind Couple To Wed Tomorrow; Wrote Love Letters In Braille

By BOB HOLTON

CORRY, Pa. (AP)—Howard Collins says he just knows Gladys Camfield will be "beautiful" when she walks up the church aisle here tomorrow to become his bride.

Gladys says Howard will be the "Most handsome" man in the wedding party.

Though their friends in this Erie County community agree, Howard and Gladys will never really know. They are both blind and have never seen each other.

Love Letters In Braille

Howard was born blind 45 years ago in his Lock, Haven home. Gladys lost her eyesight 28 years ago when she was 14. The loss was caused by an eye disease.

The couple became acquainted a year ago through a pen pal club. They exchanged letters—in Braille. Six months ago they met in Lock Haven for the first time. Four months later they became engaged and last month announced the wedding date.

Pretty And Poised

"I never really thought I would ever get married," Howard confessed.

"But somehow when I received Gladys' first letter I had the feeling she was something special in my life."

Howard is a tall, thin man with square shoulders and a lean, handsome face. Gladys is a trim brunette with pretty features and an abundance of poise.

Both Are Pensioned

The pen pal club was listed in the Christian Record, a religious publication for the blind.

The couple didn't plan a church wedding at first but members of the Corry Evangelical United Brethren Church arranged it.

The couple will live in Lock Haven with Collins' mother, Mrs. Bertha McKinney.

Howard and Gladys each receive $50 a month blind pension and Howard earns a small living caning chairs.

APPROVE NEW U.S. MARSHAL

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate Judiciary subcommittee today approved President Eisenhower's nomination of William A. O'Brien of Philadelphia to be U. S. marshal for Eastern Pennsylvania.

Sen. Duff (R-Pa.) told chairman Langer (R-ND) of the subcommittee that his Republican colleague, Sen. Martin, was unable to be present at the hearing but that he joined Duff in recommending Senate confirmation of the

GIRL FOUND IN ALBUQUERQUE; GONE TWO YEARS

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—A teen-age girl whose disappearance from her Pittsburgh home two years ago prompted a nationwide search turned up here last night as a contented wife and mother.

As Peggy Ann Hewston, she fled her home Aug. 24, 1952, when she was 15. Now she is Mrs. Tom Cory, wife of an Air Force sergeant.

"I had been planning it for a long time," she said in recalling her disappearance. "I couldn't stand that school (Edgewood High School) any longer, and my folks wouldn't let me go to another one. I had saved $70 and I knew I was going to do it. I didn't even leave a note."

She's A Mother Now

She changed her name and fled to Albuquerque, where she met and married Air Force S. Sgt. Tom Cory, 23, who attended her church here.

Now a mother of six weeks, the 17-year-old Mrs. Cory says she "feels much better" since her deception is over.

She was recognized by a Pittsburgh airman at the Sandia base hospital, where she was having her baby. The unidentified airman thought he recognized her from back home. He asked if she wasn't Peggy Ann Hewston.

"I told him he was making a big mistake," she said. The airman notified the sheriff's department and Undersheriff Walter Geis got in touch with his brother Matthew, on the Pittsburgh police force.

nomination.

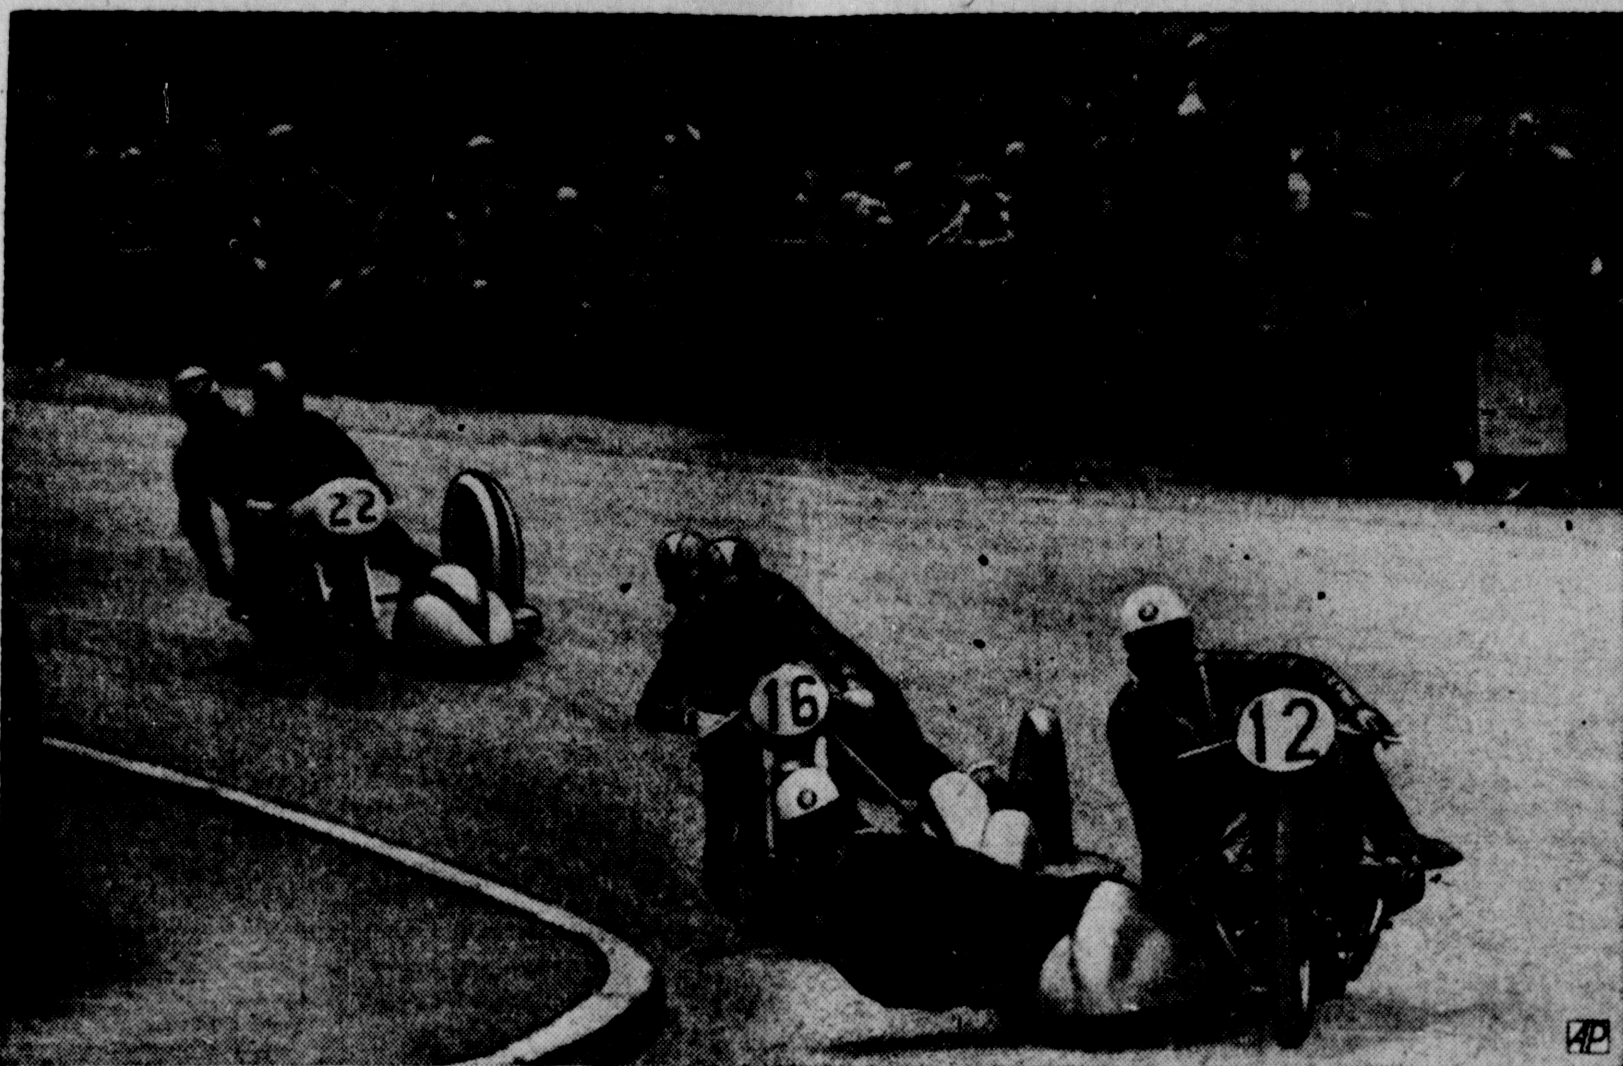

Duff said he has known O'Brien eight or nine years, that "he is a very decent fellow" and had an "excellent world war I record."

Le Roy Greene, a Martin aide, told Langer that Martin "heartily endorses the nomination."

No opposition was expressed. The nomination now goes to the full committee, also headed by Langer, where approval is virtually certain.

O'Brien was nominated to succeed Walter S. Farley, a Democrat, who was removed after he refused to resign.

DEMOCRATS TO SEEK DONATIONS IN GRASS ROOTS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Pennsylvania Democrats, seeking a $500,000 kitty for the governorship campaign, are making a special bid for "grass roots" contributions.

William D. Teffy, vice chairman of the party's finance committee, said: "We're going to put up Leaders for Governor booths all over the state where the little man can contribute his one dollar, his $5 or $10 toward eliminating the mess in Harrisburg."

He made the announcement last night at the opening of the Democratic state finance committee offices in the Suburban Station Building.

Philadelphia Democrats, headed by Mayor Joseph S. Clark, Jr., and state leaders, topped by George M. Leader, who is running for governor, crowded the suite where Matthew H. McCloskey, recently named finance chairman, will make his headquarters.

Teffy said the campaign will be opened Sept. 8 or 9 with a $100-a-plate dinner in Harrisburg. The main speaker will be Adlai Stevenson, Democratic presidential nominee in 1952.

Plan 8 Meetings

After the dinner Teffy commented, "We'll get a better idea of where we stand and where we're going. Meanwhile, we're going to meet with eight regional committees which have been set up in the state and get their ideas."

Leader, York County poultry farmer, let fall that he has been thinking a lot about the state's problems, especially the acute one in the hard coal fields. He said:

"It seems to me that we need a three-way approach to that problem. First, we've got to introduce other occupations. This means soil reclamation and diversified industry. Then we've got to have a program of vocational rehabilitation for miners who have done nothing all their lives but mine coal. Thirdly, we've got to provide more educational opportunities in the schools."

BILL BENEFITS FOUR MILLION

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House voted yesterday to extend the federal-state system of jobless compensation to about four million more persons, while beating down a Democratic move to boost benefits.

Passage on a 309-36 roll call vote sent to the Senate a measure, somewhat along lines recommended by the Eisenhower administration, to bring into the unemployment compensation program some 2 1/2 million federal government employees and about 1 1/2 millions working for firms which hire four or more employees for 20 weeks a

The present law, embracing approximately 36 million persons, covers firms hiring eight or more employees for 20 weeks in a year. Rep. Forand (RI) and a group of Democratic colleagues lost in a move to increase payments to the jobless and extend payments for at least 26 weeks. Benefits and payment periods now vary among the states.

KIDNAP-KILLER SEARCH WIDENS IN MIAMI CASE

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Police broadened their search today for the brutal killer who kidnaped and murdered Judith Ann Roberts, but little progress was reported.

Detective Lt. Chester Eldredge, chief of the homicide bureau, said police "have no definite suspects."

"I can't accuse anyone at this time," he said.

Renewed questioning of members of the child's family and other witnesses led police to believe the 7-year-old, blue-eyed Baltimore girl may have been kidnaped from her bed as early as midnight Tuesday. The time previously had been fixed at 1:10 a.m. Wednesday.

Seek Missing Youth

Police sent out a pickup order for a teen-age boy who disappeared from his home in the neighborhood where the murder victim was kidnaped. The youth had been involved in a case of child molestation and left his home shortly before Judith was kidnaped, police said.

The dwellings are about two blocks apart and police said they wanted to question the boy about his activities.

Judith Ann was buried yesterday in private services at Mt. Nebo Cemetery with only the parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts, the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosenberg, and a few friends present.

In 10 Goodyear plants across the country, they walked out Wednesday night after a breakdown in company-union negotiations held at Cincinnati.

Goodyear said the union rejected an offer of a 6-cent hourly wage increase. The rubber workers never have made their wage demands public.

A union spokesman said Local President Carl Baker would address the Akron meeting but did not indicate what would be said.

Picketing was peaceful on the first day of the company's first nationwide walkout. Office workers were permitted to pass through the lines. Only production workers were out.

Say Foreign Aid Plan Costs Pa. $255,841,000
HARRISBURG (P) - The State Chamber of Commerce estimated today that President Eisenhower's recommended foreign aid program - if approved by Congress - would cost Pennsylvania taxpayers $255,841,000 for the fiscal year 1955.

The chamber based its estimates on figures showing that the commonwealth pays 7.42 per cent of all federal taxes. The President has called for $3,448,000,000 for foreign aid programs for the 1955 fiscal year.

Of the total estimate that would be paid by Pennsylvanians, $68,486,000 would be for economic aid and $187,355,000 would go for military aid.

Particle From Outer Space, An Anti-Proton Found By Scientist

By RENNIE TAYLOR

SEATTLE (AP)—The first substantial evidence of the existence of stable "matter in reverse"—a particle from outer space which annihilates the basic material of all earthly substances—has been found by a University of Chicago scientist.

From somewhere out in the Milky Way or perhaps from some more distant island universe this strange bit of matter came to the top of the earth's atmosphere last winter. With tremendous energy it struck an aluminum-covered film pack being carried by a cosmic ray research balloon high over Texas.

The space particle went through the film pack like a bullet through a deck of cards. In doing so it produced a scientifically thrilling sequence of what appears to be the conversion of earthly matter into energy and then a reconversion of this energy into another form of earthly matter.

A report of the event was made before a meeting of the American Physical Society here yesterday by its discoverer, Dr. Marcel Schein, one of this country's foremost cosmic ray scientists.

Dr. Schein said the only conclusion he could make so far was that the strange visitor was something which nuclear scientists have been seeking for years—an anti-proton.

For scientists the implications are far-reaching. They suggest that somewhere in the universe there exists a means of annihilating or converting into energy all the various kinds of matter known on earth.

PROMOTION FOR NEGRO

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Commissioner Thomas Gibbons yesterday announced appointment of Allen Ballard as the first Negro member of the Philadelphia Police Department to attain the post of inspector.

3 CHILDREN ARE KILLED BY TRAIN

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A fast passenger train killed three children yesterday while their parents were trying to push their stalled automobile off New York Central tracks 10 miles west of here.

Killed instantly were Catherine Gallagher, 5, and her sister Jo-dette, 16 months. Their sister Mary, 3, died in a hospital a few hours later.

State highway patrolmen said Mr. and Mrs. John T. Gallagher of Holland, Ohio, were trying to push the car off the tracks when the Chicago-bound Iroquois smashed into it.

The children were sitting in the back seat.

Uninjured, the parents were reported in a state of shock and collapse.

Ain't Exactly Friends, He Says, After Fight

TEXAS CITY, Tex. (AP)—Sam Lewing, 38, was testifying in the preliminary hearing of Henry Boles, 40, on charges of aggravated assault. He said Boles threatened to kill him, and "ran around" with Mrs. Lewing.

A defense attorney asked the witness if he was angry with Boles.

Not exactly, replied Lewing. "What?" the attorney pressed.

"You say this man steals your wife, threatens to kill you and his you over the head with a chain, and you're not mad at him?"

"Wal," replied the lanky Lewing. "I ain't exactly no big friend of his."

FOUR KILLED IN HEAD-ON CRASH

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Four young persons were killed and four others critically injured early today in a head-on collision of two automobiles on the Industrial Highway in southwest Philadelphia.

Seven of the victims, including all four dead, were in the same car. The driver of the other car, William J. Nixon, 28, of nearby Chester, who was alone, is in critical condition with chest injuries.

Dead are Grace Pro, 20; Anthony Tulina, 30; Vincent Caruso, 33; and Eugene Santaras, 23.

Reported in critical condition at several nearby hospitals were Dante Pro, 25, husband of Grace; Nicholas Russo, 17; and Gaetano Ricevuto, 40.

Police said first reports indicated Caruso lost control of his car, failed to negotiate a winding turn on the highway, crossed the medial strip and crashed into Nixon after spilling most of the occupants to the highway.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—A page from the sum book of Abraham Lincoln, with some schoolboy doggerel written by him, is on exhibit at the Illinois State Historical Library.

The doggerel reads: "Abraham Lincoln is my name 'And with my pen I wrote the same."

"I wrote in both hast (sic) and speed 'And left it here for fools to read.'"

The exhibit is part of the private collection of Justin G. Turner, Hollywood, Calif., who loaned it to the library.
